

arvato – At Your Service

With 60,000 employees around the world, we are right there – wherever our customers need us, with precisely the services they need. We offer our customers one-stop, customised solution packages that cover the full spectrum of our offerings and extend beyond country borders.

Each year, we ship 650 million consignments on behalf of our customers, field 200 million phone calls and process over a million tons of paper into books, catalogues and other printed products. We service 120 million consumers. More than six million CDs and DVDs are shipped from our replication plants each day. The server park we operate for our customers offers more than 85 terabytes of hard disk capacity and 1,900 processor units.

As an internationally-networked media and communications services provider, we are a strong partner for our customers and an attractive employer for creative, entrepreneurially-minded people.
